Paul Fleischmann, on- Scottish Research

Paul (McPherson) Fleischmann will outline some topics for tracking the ancestry of our Scottish relatives. He will start with Internet search capabilities available about Scotland. This will include a brief review of resources for those planning on visiting Scotland.

Then we will check out some resources that aren't Scottish- but are very good ways to look for immigrant pathways through Canada!

About our presenter:

Paul Fleischmann is a retired aero-space mechanical engineer and, since retiring in 1999, has been more involved in learning and teaching genealogy.
