Matthew Urtz

Using Local Sources

Matthew Urtz will help us learn about local primary sources and how to utilize them to improve our ancestral research.

About Our Speaker: Matt is the Madison County Historian since April 2010. He is also Vice-President and Region 9 Coordinator for the Association of Public Historians in New York State. He is widely published and has done over 30 presentations, public and private. He and Madison County have received many awards and commendations for educational projects by NYS.
